

Khamlane Halsackda He/Him/They (Age 47) Choreographer/Performer/Director

He was born in Laos, Vientiane, and grew up in the UK, London. His own dance theater and social comment based performances are focussed on creating discussion and debate around identity and what this could mean. He was selected for Dance net Sweden's co-production 2017, a work called Ursäkta oss. His latest project is 'Into Flesh' made in collaboration with Skye Reynolds. Khamlane also creates performative concepts for galleries including installations 'Permission to grieve' and 'An exercise in learning Swedish'. He is a member of Nya Rörelsen (The new movement), a collective of QBIPOC choreographers based in Malmö, Sweden.
